Please note:

- Graduate Recruitment: You will be unable to participate in BEL SET recruitment activities between February to April in Year Three Semester 1 or Year Four Semester 1, if you wish to go on exchange in either semester
- To be eligible to participate in an exchange, you will need to meet UQ Abroad's eligibility criteria and complete the application as outlined on the UQ Abroad website by the appropriate deadline. You will need to apply to the host university if your UQ Abroad application is successful. For more information please see http://www.uq.edu.au/uqabroad/
- The courses listed above are from information available at the time of publication. Courses are not guaranteed to be on offer in the semester of exchange at the host university. If you wish to undertake courses that are not listed, Faculty approval is required by emailing exchange@bel.uq.edu.au
- You should think carefully before deciding to participate in an exchange. Your graduation may be delayed if pre-approved courses end up not being available when you arrive at the host university
- If you have successfully completed 15 credits (5 courses) from the approved list of courses above at UW-Madison you are eligible for #8 units (4 courses) of credit where applicable towards the BAdvFin&Econ(Hons), Professional Pathway. Please note that this is not a guaranteed amount of credit and students may expect to receive less than #8 units (4 courses) credit. This credit sheet & study plan is a guideline for being awarded up to the maximum credit possible. Credit will only be awarded on passing grades or above from studies undertaken at the host university and according to UQ's 3.50.03 Credit for Previous Studies and Recognised Prior Learning policy: https://ppl.app.uq.edu.au/
- Other special conditions may apply according to institutional exchange agreements
- Credit is valid for three years from the "Last Updated" listed below and may be subject to change
