Key Dates to Note

Now
You should be enrolled in your courses by now. If you have not enrolled, you must do this immediately via mySI-net – you must follow your program plan!

Week 2
You have until the end of week 2 to add/substitute courses to your enrolment.

Semester 1 Census Date – 31 March
Census Date is the last date to drop a course on mySI-net without academic or financial penalty. It’s also the date by which all fees and charges must be paid.

30 April
Last date to withdraw without academic penalty from a course on mySI-net (you will still be liable for fees/HECS for the course).

The Employability Award is an extra-curricular program that gives students the chance to build skills that future employers value, such as leadership, teamwork, communication, problem solving and cultural awareness.

The program is free to join and you can enrol at any time during your degree. To be eligible to receive the award you must complete and reflect on various experiences.

employability.uq.edu.au/award

"My participation in the award was instrumental for enhancing my employability. By backing up my academic achievements with solid professional and volunteering experience, I was able to develop a variety of skills and capabilities that are vital to operating in the workforce."

Our goals look beyond graduation.

The Student Employability Team (SET) is dedicated to assisting students from the BEL Faculty to increase their employability, access opportunities and manage their careers. BEL SET's services are supplementary to the services offered by the UQ Student Employability Centre.

More importantly, we are about creating opportunities to get ahead. It's not just a foot in, it's a step up. Because when you get SET, you go further. Get SET, ready, go.
