A DAY IN THE LIFE

Connect with a panel of young professionals about their transition into the workforce.

Get valuable insight into the everyday work life of a panel of speakers who work in/for a variety of industries, employers and roles. Find out what it would be like to do their job, to help you explore possible career options.

Each session covers a different industry so you can get an understanding of career paths relevant to your studies and interests.

The panel consists of young professionals from various organisations. They will discuss and answer questions about their background, their everyday work life, the best parts of their role and the transition to work. Each event will also give you the opportunity to network with the panel.

BY ATTENDING YOU WILL:

- understand various industries from an employee perspective
- learn what to expect after you leave university
- gain inspiration about your future career.
