

CAREER SUCCESS PROGRAM

Learn and practise the key skills and traits employers are looking for from graduates.

This engaging and interactive program will increase your awareness and knowledge of the skills and traits employers are looking for from graduate employees.

Learn and practise key skills that will strengthen your employability and help you start building your personal and professional profile to align with your preferred career direction.

BY PARTICIPATING IN THE PROGRAM, YOU WILL:

- be more prepared for the highly competitive graduate market
- strengthen your understanding of the expectations of industry and employers
- get exposure and training on various key employability topics which will empower you to transition from student to employee
- practise and develop skills in a safe environment and receive feedback
- learn about expected behaviours and attitudes and how best to develop, enhance and use such attributes to your advantage
- receive support to help you develop your own plan and strategies to achieve your career goals.

Each session runs for 60-90 minutes and typically includes guidance on how to get an internship, personal branding, cultural and organisational awareness and networking sessions.
